

Parent & School Communication Lines

Communication with parents is a crucial aspect of school. We recognise that the start of the school day is very busy as teachers are in classrooms ready to start the learning as soon as the day begins. If you have any urgent queries in the morning, please speak to the member of staff who is on outside duty or to the school office.

